

Our journey so far

Key:

- Thrive LDN Champions
- Right to Thrive
- Suicide Prevention
- Young Londoners
- Participation & Campaigns
- Leadership

Since launching, we have encouraged collective action through several citywide projects and activities, all of which have seen sustained engagement and direct involvement with Londoners right across the city.

Mapping mental health in London report published

Sadiq Khan makes commitment to mental health in Mayoral manifesto

Thrive LDN endorsed by the London Health Board

Thrive LDN Steering Group established

Thrive LDN Champions Network formed

Thrive LDN Suicide Prevention Network established

Problem Solving Booths

Community conversations across half of London's boroughs

Are we OK London? campaign

Thrive LDN publish Towards happier healthier lives

Thrive LDN launched by Mayor of London and London Health Board partners July 2017

Right to Thrive community engagement begins

Right to Thrive events with Brixton Reel

First young Londoner-led festival for World Mental Health Day

Youth Mental Health First Aid programme launched

Young London Inspired programme launched

Discover Storytelling partnership

Thrive LDN becomes Zero Suicide Alliance partner

The opportunities for arts and cultural activities to improve the mental health and wellbeing of Londoners published

Thrive LDN publish Londoners said report

Thrive LDN Culture report published

Are we OK London? campaign

This is Me campaign partnership launched

Thrive Together interfaith campaign and event

Mayor Philip Glanville appointed Co-Lead of Thrive LDN, along with Dr Jacqui Dyer

Thrive LDN Champions Leadership Development programme

Right to Thrive events with Brixton Reel

Keeping Londoners Well research published

Second young Londoner-led festival for World Mental Health Day

Over 100 Youth Mental Health First Aid Instructors trained and over 1,300 educational staff trained in Youth MHFA

Young London Inspired programme awards a total of 33 grants

#ZeroSuicideLDN campaign launched

Partnership with Papyrus to train educational staff in suicide awareness launched

Thrive LDN Suicide Prevention Information Sharing Hub launched

National Park City Festival partnership

Creativity and Wellbeing Week partnership

This is Me campaign partnership

Ensuring all Londoners have an equal opportunity to good mental health report published

Academic partnerships with NIHR Mental Health Policy Research Unit and the Centre for Society and Mental Health established

Dr Jacqui Dyer represents Thrive LDN at #CitiesThrive conference in New York

2016

2017

2018

2019

